STANDARD TRADING CONDITIONS

All and any business undertaken, including any advice, information or service provided whether gratuitously or not, by M/S. REFLEX INTEGRATED LOGISTICS LLC (hereinafter called the "Company") shall conduct business according to the Standard Trading Conditions of freight forwarding & logistic services set out here under.

The Customer's attention is drawn to the Clauses hereof which exclude or limit the Company's liability and these which require the Customer to indemnify the Company in certain circumstances.

1. DEFINITIONS AND APPLICATION

In these Conditions:

1.1 "Company" is M/S. REFLEX INTEGRATED LOGISTICS LLC under these conditions and this expression includes any parent subsidiary or affiliated company of the Company.

1.2 "Person" includes persons or anybody or bodies corporate.

1.3 "Owner" means the owner of the goods (including any packaging, containers or equipment) to which any business concluded under these Conditions relates and the consignee or any other Person who is or may become interested in or in possession or entitled to possession of them

1.4 "Customer" means any Person at whose request or on whose behalf the Company undertakes any business or provides advice, information or services.

2. INTRODUCTION

2.1 The services offered to be performed and performed by the Company, whether written, orally or electronically communicated, shall be governed by the terms and conditions which shall be deemed to be accepted at the time of order. The Customer warrants to accept these terms and conditions for itself and for and on behalf of the Owners. The same shall be constructed to be understood and binding even though no express request or reference is made to these terms and conditions. The limitation of liability as detailed in the paragraph herein as applicable is also applicable to compensation claims arising from any unlawful activities.

2.2 These terms and conditions are the governing terms and conditions of services to all contracts of transportation, ancillary logistic services, warehousing, storage, consolidation, packing, on forwarding, transshipments, or other services common to freight forwarding as may be advised by clients, that override any conflicting provisions (in the absence of other terms and conditions that may be issued by the Company). However, in the event when the Company issues its independent terms and conditions for specific contractual activity, duly signed under the authorized director or any personnel authorised to do so; those terms and conditions shall read along with the documents agreed to by the client and in the event of conflict, these general conditions shall prevail.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMPANY

3.1 Subject to the clause no. 4.6, 8.5 and 13, the Company shall be liable for accurate, conscientious, with due skill and diligence arrange organization of the transport order.

3.2 The Company is responsible for the choice and instruction of the contracted sub-agents as carriers, forwarding agents, warehouse-operators, etc. but shall be relieved from liability, if the choice has been done carefully and the received transport instructions have been transmitted to the sub-agents in accordance with the transport order. In that case, Company may relinquish its rights against responsible sub-agents to the Customer.

3.3 In case of joint legal action against Company and its employees, whether regular or temporary, the maximum indemnification shall not exceed the limits provided for in clause 9 as below.

4. WARRANTIES BY THE COMPANY

4.1 The Company, when performing the service of freight forwarding, shall act as an agent of the Customer and not as a common carrier except when it issues its own MTD documents for carriage of goods.

4.2 The Company in such a situation is not a carrier but shall procure or arrange the services of carriage and handling of goods to be undertaken by such person or subcontracted agents on behalf of the main Customer. In these contexts, any contract shall be deemed to be the direct contract between the Customer and such third party.

4.3 The offer and acceptance of an inclusive price for the accomplishment of any service or services shall not itself determine whether any such service is or services are to be arranged by the Company acting as agent or to be provided by the Company acting as a contracting principal.

4.4 In case where the Company has undertaken the transportation of goods as a Multi Modal Transport Operator and has issued its own MTD document, the Company performs such services as carrier of the goods and accepts the goods for transport to the destination as per the terms of transportation under the MTD.

4.5 When acting as an agent the Company does not make or purport to make any contract with the Customer for the carriage, storage, packing or handling of any goods nor for any other physical service in relation to them and acts solely on behalf of the Customer in securing services by establishing Contracts with third parties so that direct contractual relationships are established between the Customer and such third parties.

4.6 The Company when acting as freight forwarder on behalf of the Customer shall be entitled to enter into and vary contracts on behalf of the Customer and the Customer is deemed to have accepted and ratified the same for;

- a. The carriage of goods by any route means and carriers as the Company deems fit.
- b. Handling of goods by any person, at any place and for any length of time.
- c. Any other contracting/sub-contracting which the Company may deem it necessary in the performance of the duties.
- d. Acts which the Company deems fit based on the circumstance in the overall interest of the Customer and the same shall be binding on the Customer.

4.7 The Company shall on demand by the Customer provide evidence of any contract entered as agent for the Customer. Insofar as the Company may be in default of this obligation, it shall be deemed to have contracted with the Customer as a principal for the performance of the Customer's instructions.

4.8 The Company and the contracted vendors or any other sub-contracted parties will have the defence to the limitation of the liabilities for damages or loss of cargo as prescribed in these terms and shall be binding on the Customer subject to the prima facie performance of the duties with reasonable prudence, skill and care.

4.9 The Company and its sub-agents do not warrant and shall not be under obligation to the Customer to carry/store/handle the goods separately from the other similar or general cargo unless the cargo description warrants the separate treatment and is covered by a separate specific contract in writing as described in the terms and conditions herein.

4.10 The Company shall under no circumstances be liable for any loss, damage, expense or delay to the goods for any reason whatsoever when said goods are in custody, possession or control of such third parties selected by the Customer in course of performance of activities as freight forwarders.

4.11 The Company when storing the goods as part of the freight forwarding activity or transportation of goods under MTD, is bound to rely on the declaration of the Customer or its agents as to the nature of the goods and the apparent condition without verify the contents and the quality. The Customer warrants that all declarations are correct and shall keep the Company harmless and indemnified from all cost, levies, charges, in an event of the any damage to the third-party goods arising out of such incorrect warranties.

4.12 The Company shall recover storage charges as per the agreed contractual terms based on the period of the storage and the same shall be paid as per the terms of contract. Delay in removal of stored items beyond the agreed period will make the Customer liable to pay two (2) times of the normal storage charges agreed with the Company and in case of continued default, the Company can move to sale the good on giving notice to the Customer.

6. INSURANCE

6.1 The Company (or its agents) does not provide insurance cover against the loss or damage of cargo unless specifically requested by the Customer in writing in advance;

6.2 The Company assumes, that unless advised for insurance the Customer is covered for all risks and consequences;

6.3 In an event the Customer has advised to obtain insurance, the Company (or its agents) would undertake to arrange for the cover as an agent of the Customer with the beneficiary instruction as per the terms of shipment for a consideration (premium payments) and the applicable clauses and in such cases the general clause; warranties; exemption and limitation of the Insurance companies as applicable will apply;

6.4 Whether or not the insurance cover is arranged by the Company, the policy of the Customer should note the Company interest as freight forwarding and logistic agents and hold the Company harmless from any loss or damage not attributed to the deficiencies in performance of duties.

7. CHARGES

7.1 The freight forwarding charges shall be fully earned on receipt of the goods by the Company and are payable on a non-refundable basis irrespective whether the goods are delivered to the consignee or not;

7.2 The freight forwarder charges and the quotation are based on the costing prevailing as on that date in respect of freight, port charges, exchange parity, duties, levies, surcharges, special route charges, congestion charges; any levies to counter the climatic variation, etc. In an event of changes in any of the charges, the Company shall be entitled to the recovery of the revised charges from the Customer notwithstanding whether revised quotation was given and or approved by the Customer, and the Customer is under obligation to honour the payments of any or all such revised charges when invoiced and due.

7.3 The freight charges are also dependent on the declaration of weight, volume, description, labelling, nature of cargo; the Company or its carrier or any subagent may undertake to re-measure the volume, weight, description and in the event of any changes, the Customer is obliged to pay the charges as applicable due to revision of the said changes by consequences of correct weight/measurement and the accurate description of the goods.

7.4 The Company charges are due and payable when the invoice is submitted unless the specific credit is approved in writing by the Management of the Company in which case the Customer will arrange payments strictly as per the pre-approved credit and delay beyond the approved limits shall be deemed to the default by the Customer.

7.5 In the event of the default by the Customer in making payments to the Company as per the due approved credit day, the Company is entitled to the levy of interest at the rate of two percent (2 %) per month or the highest rate permitted by law for each month or part thereof and recover it from the Customer. The Company shall have a further right to seek legal recourse for the recovery of dues in the event of non-payment as per the due date and extension of credits beyond the approved credit period and the cost of such legal recourse/ incidental expenses to be borne by the Customer. The Company reserves its right without prejudice to seek suitable legal recourse available and in addition to those mentioned above to enable the Company to recover the due amount with interest and the legal cost as the case may be.

7.6 The Company is not obliged to advance duties, levies port charges and other reimbursement on behalf of the Customer, unless, there is a prior agreement in writing to the specific advancement of these charges by the Company on behalf of the Customer; in such an event the Company shall be entitled to receive advance charges from the Customers.

7.7 The Company may at its discretion, advance the payments of duties, levies, port charges, other reimbursements; in such an event the Customer is obliged to pay this immediately on receipt of debit note/reimbursement advice/invoice.

7.8 In the event of any delay from the Customer in tendering of the advance payments to the Company and as consequence thereof, the cost have changed, or the Company has incurred additional storage, warehousing, inventory holding cost by whatever name called, and increase in levies and surcharges, delay in performance of the deliveries over that of the agreed time schedule, the Customer is obliged to pay and reimburse all the cost to the Company and keep the Company harmless from any damage or loss arising therewith or to their sub-agents or the carriers or any third sub-contractors. If at any time, the Customer defaults in terms of payment, any subsisting obligation of the Company may be suspended at the cost and the risk of the Customer and the Company shall not be under any liability to the Customer or the owner during any such period of suspension. The Customer shall indemnify the Company for all charges included for storage and warehousing/extra movement or holding of such cargo/ disposal of perishable cargo/moving of cargo to alternative sites etc. and shall not hold the Company responsible for any loss or damage of cargo.

7.9 All levies/service tax/withholding tax whether specified at the stage of quotation or not are due and payable, as per the statute applicable, as extra. All charges are exclusive of taxes/VAT/GST/ service tax and the Customer is obliged to pay accordingly. Any non-payment tantamount to default by the Customer and the Company shall have recourse to recover these charges.

7.10 In an event, the Company is not able to recover the invoice for freight/or charges for storages, warehousing/holding/transportation of the cargo due to NON-acceptance of delivery or creating obstacles for delivery warranting extra storages, the Company shall have the right to recover such charges from the other party, i.e. from the shipper for the failure of the consignee in performance of their act.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

8.1 The Company shall perform the duties as required in the due performance of services as advised by the Customer with due diligence, reasonable care, skill and judgment as may be warranted by the Customer's instruction.

8.2 In the absence of any specific written request from the Customer to comply with the specific requirement, the Company shall be at the liberty to select the option best suited in the given circumstances and shall be relieved of any liability thereon.

8.3 The Company shall be at the liberty to select subcontractors as agents for the Customers/clients, including carriers, storage keepers, warehousing agents, stuffing agents, packers, surveyors, transporters, who shall be considered as separate and independent agents of Customers/clients and the goods shall be entrusted to such subcontractors subject to all the conditions of limitation of liability for loss, damage, expenses or claims and shall be subject to all rules, regulations, requirements, conditions whether written printed or stamped in any or all documents issued by such forwarding agents, carriers or sub agents.

8.4 The Company does not warrant any time bound deliveries and therefore, no claim shall be admissible in respect of any delays by the Company or any carriers or any of its agents/sub-agents, unless where by a separate written agreement the Company has committed to time or commitment under the MTD documents, in writing by senior authorised personnel (not below the rank of manager) duly approved. In such circumstances, the maximum amount of loss on delay is limited to the freight payable on the concerned shipment.

8.5 The Company shall be relieved of any liability for damage or loss to the extent that such damage or loss is caused by:

- (a) reasons beyond the control of the Company and the consequence of which the Company is unable to prevent or could have prevented within it means by the exercise of reasonable diligence;
- (b) Where the Company has exercised due diligence, reasonable care and skill as warranted in normal situation for the performance of the duties;
- (c) Where the Customer has de-defaulted or has made incorrect representation in respect of cargo and such loss or damage is attributed to have been caused by such incorrect representation and has therefore resulted in ineffective discharge of reasonable prudence; the negligence of the client or his authorized representative;
- (d) Where the Customer has failed to declare or provide instructions with regard to the critical nature, specific care and diligence, and such failure has caused damage;
- (e) The lack of, or defective packing, markings or stowage insofar as Company has not executed the packing, markings or stowage. The Company shall also have no liability for packing of goods, of which it cannot verify the contents;
- (f) Loss arising due to any force majeure situation, not limited to war, strike, lock out, terror acts, stoppages or restraint of labour, robbery or theft, the seizure or impounding of freight; damages caused by nuclear energy; usurped power or confiscation, nationalization, other regulatory measures, decrees or recommendations issued by state bodies or other public authorities, administrative or legal requirements; acts of God namely being thunderstorm, cyclone, tsunami, etc., the consequence of which the Company is unable to prevent with the application of reasonable care and prudence; inherent vice and nature of goods;
- (g) Rodents and insects, unless the client is able to give evidence that Company has not complied with the usual protective measures as was required as per the description of the good packing or advice of Customer;

(h) All liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses whatsoever (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all duties, taxes, imposts, levies, deposits and outlays of what so ever nature levied by any authority in relation to the goods) arising out of the Company acting in accordance with the Customer's instructions, or arising from any breach by the Customer of any warranty contained in these conditions, or from the negligence of the Customer;

(i) The Company shall not be liable for the consequential loss or cost under any circumstance, and what so ever, such as but not limited to loss of profit, loss of client, extra custom tariffs, duties, penalties, changes of trade barriers, depreciation of currencies, and the various exclusions and limitations as provided in this agreement shall apply;

(j) Company shall not in any circumstances be responsible for damages which are attributable to delay in delivery;

(k) Company can, by no means, be liable if the goods have been carried by the client or his representative. The Company shall not be liable for consequences of loading and unloading operations, which it has not performed.

(l) In respect of freight forwarding activities, the Company shall under no circumstances be liable for any loss, damage and expenses towards the goods for any reasons whatsoever when the said goods are in the custody, possession or control and influence of sub-contractors as selected by the Customer. The sub-agents are considered and deemed to be independent agents for an on behalf of the client /Customer;

(m) The referred defences and limitations shall apply to the Company and its sub-agents, its employees, its affiliates, its network of agents or vendors or transporters/warehouse keepers on application of reasonable due diligence in discharge of their duties during the custody or the control on cargo.

9. PERIOD OF LIMITATION/SET-OFF

9.1 The Company upon delivering the good to the consignee, the consignee shall check the condition of the goods, the quantity, the number and weight of packages and shall immediately report any apparent defects and missing items.

9.2 Should any irregularity or missing item not be immediately apparent; the consignee shall send due reservations/complains of damage/short arrival or loss of items in writing within 48 Hours after delivery.

9.3 The notice for complains/reservations of damage/short arrival or loss should be further supported with all the surveyor reports/inspection agencies reports/picture on de-stuffing/picture of packages with apparent damages on the packages if any, along with all the relevant documents within 6 (six) working days from the delivery of the cargo and within latest 4 (four) working days from advice of intimation as of 9.2 above.

9.4 In the absence of adequate documents and within the time schedule prescribed, any claims directed against the Company shall be forfeited.

9.5 The Company should be allowed access for the joint inspection of the damaged cargo and to the salvage and should be in a position for the reasonable assessment of the derivation of loss; upon payment for the damage the Company would have the right to the value of salvage or such value will be deducted from the value of the claims so determined.

9.6 In an event of the claim being preferred on multiple agencies by the Customer, the liability of the Company stands reduced to the value of the claim accepted by the other parties and, in no case the value of the claims be aggregated; this is for the avoidance of the Customer making unjust enrichment out of multiple claims. In case of freight forwarding activity, the Company being the agent of the Customer and not the carrier, will be the last in the sequence to meet the liability of the claim only after all the other parties to the chain have met with their part of the claim.

9.7 In case of delay where the performance of contract is undertaken with certain time commitment by express contract in writing the delay is deemed to occur in the following case;

- (a) Where the Company has caused the delay in delivery beyond a reasonable time required to be delivered based on the circumstances;
- (b) Delay in delivery beyond 90 days from the date of agreed/expected delivery dates.

9.8 In the above cases, the claim for delay is limited to freight charges for the said cargo. Company would however, be relieved from the payment of the claim for delay in an event the delay has not been caused directly by the act of the Company and the Company has exercised due prudence with reasonable skills and care in the selection of carrier as per their committed time schedules and the delay is beyond the area of control and influence by the Company.

9.9 The cause of loss or damage be unexplained shall not exceed;

(i) In the case of claims for loss or damage to goods:

- (a) The value of any goods lost or damaged, or
- (b) a sum at the rate of Dirhams 30 (thirty) per kilo of gross weight of any goods lost or damaged, subject to a limit of Dirhams 20,000 (twenty thousand) per package or unit, whichever shall be the least.

(ii) In case of all other claims:

- (a) the value of the goods the subject of the relevant transaction between the Company and its Customer, or
- (b) a sum at the rate of Dirhams 30 (thirty) per kilo of the gross weight of the goods the subject of the said transaction, subject to a limit of Dirhams 20,000 (twenty thousand) per package or unit, whichever shall be the least.

For the purposes of sub clause 9.9 (i)(a);

- (a) The value of the goods shall be their value when they were or should have been shipped.
- (b) Subject to sub clause (ii) (b). above, and Sub-Clause d. below, the Company's liability for loss or damage as a result of failure to deliver or arrange delivery of goods

10. LIEN, PLEDGE, SALE & DISPERSAL OF GOODS

10.1 The Company has a lien on the cargo and the content of containers in an event of the default by the Customer in the payment of freight and other dues of the Company Notwithstanding whether other available legal recourse has been initiated or not, the Company would continue to hold the cargo till the realisation of the previous dues. Further, the Company has right of lien of goods of the Customer for the previous/or any default and need not be or related to the freight charges on the referred shipments.

10.2 If the monies due to the Company are not paid forthwith after notice has been given to any person from whom the monies are due, the goods or any other goods that are detained for the payments of the dues, they may be sold in auction or otherwise at the sole discretion of the Company at the expense of such persons; the net proceeds of sale applied in or toward the settlement of over dues/indebts, and refund the balance available if any to the Customer. Any such sale or disposition shall not prejudice or affect the right of the Company to recover from such persons any balance dues or amount payable to the Company in respect of service provided here under or cost of any such detention and sale or other disposition.

10.3 The Company shall be entitled at the expense of Customer to sell or dispose of:

(a) On the expiry of 21 days' notice in writing to the Customer or where the Customer cannot be traced, after such goods have been held by the Company for 90 days, all goods which in the opinion of the Company cannot be delivered, either because they are insufficiently or incorrectly addressed or they are not collected or accepted by the consignee or any other below reasons;

(b) Any perishable goods, without notice to the Customer or the owner which are not taken up immediately on arrival or which are insufficiently or incorrectly addressed or they are not collected or accepted by the consignee or which in the opinion of Company appear to be deteriorating or is likely to perish during the course of freight or on carriage or on handling of the goods.

11. NOTICE OF CLAIM

11.1 The Company shall not be liable to the Customer/Owner for any damage or loss unless:

- (a) Written notice of any claim with full particulars of the events alleged damage or loss is received by the Company;
- (b) Company is allowed accessibility of inspection/joint inspection for determination of alleged damage.

12. LIMITATION OF ACTION

12.1 Any action relating to freight forwarding under the applicable conditions shall be time barred unless the judicial proceedings have not been initiated within a period of 9 (nine) months after:

- (a) The date of delivery of goods;
- (b) Or the date when the goods should have been delivered,
- (c) The date on and from which the party entitled to receive has the right to treat the goods as lost.

13. FORCE MAJEURE

13.1 The Company shall not be liable for failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement if prevented from doing so because of, including, but not limited to an act of God, fire, flood, war, civil disturbance, interference by civil or military authority or other causes beyond their responsible control of the parties.

14. SEVERABILITY

14.1 In an event of invalidity or enforceability of any of the provision of these terms and conditions shall not affect the validity or the enforceability of any other part of the terms and conditions, and such non-applicability would restrict only to those specific paragraphs applicable for that instance/contract.

15. LAW, JURISDICTION AND CONCILIATION

15.1 These Conditions and any act or contract to which they apply shall be governed by U.A.E. law and any dispute arising out of any act or contract to which these Conditions apply shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the U.A.E. courts.
